The collection of this information is relevant and necessary to document and investigate complaints of Internet-related crime. Submission of the information requested is voluntary; however, your failure to supply requested information may impede or preclude the investigation of your complaint by law enforcement agencies.

The information collected is maintained in one or more of the following Privacy Act Systems of Records: the FBI Central Records System, Justice/FBI-002, notice of which was published in the Federal Register at 63 Fed. Reg. 8671 (Feb. 20, 1998); the FBI Data Warehouse System, DOJ/FBI-022, notice of which was published in the Federal Register at 77 Fed. Reg. 40631 (July 10, 2012). Descriptions of these systems may also be found at www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records#FBI. The information collected may be disclosed in accordance with the routine uses referenced in those notices or as otherwise permitted by law. For example, in accordance with those routine uses, in certain circumstances, the FBI may disclose information from your complaint to appropriate criminal, civil, or regulatory law enforcement authorities (whether federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, foreign, or international). Information also may be disclosed as a routine use to an organization or individual in both the public or private sector if deemed necessary to elicit information or cooperation from the recipient for use by the FBI in the performance of an authorized activity. "An example would be where the activities of an individual are disclosed to a member of the public in order to elicit his/her assistance in [FBI's] apprehension or detection efforts." 63
